Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Banking Institute	Duration	10 Days
Base Fee	$3,000 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

In today’s hyper-competitive and digitally disrupted financial ecosystem, Customer Journey Mapping (CJM) has become a strategic imperative for banks aiming to deliver seamless omnichannel experiences, customer-centric innovation, and data-driven personalization. Customer Journey Mapping in Banking Training Course equips banking professionals with advanced tools and methodologies to visualize, analyze, and optimize customer interactions across all touchpoints branch, mobile, web, call center, and third-party ecosystems. Leveraging AI-driven analytics, behavioral insights, and real-time data, participants will learn how to design frictionless journeys that enhance customer satisfaction, retention, and lifetime value (CLV).

With increasing pressure from fintech disruptors and evolving customer expectations, banks must transition from product-centric models to experience-led transformation strategies. This training integrates design thinking, customer analytics, digital transformation frameworks, and journey orchestration techniques to enable participants to identify pain points, reduce churn, and drive revenue growth. Real-world case studies from global banks will illustrate how leading institutions are using customer journey mapping, predictive analytics, and automation to create competitive advantage and sustainable growth.
