Course Introduction

Gender, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Training Course provides a deep dive into the critical intersection of gender dynamics, violent conflict, and sustainable peacebuilding. It's designed for professionals who need to move beyond traditional, gender-blind approaches to conflict resolution. Participants will explore how gender norms and roles, including masculinities and femininities, influence every stage of conflict, from its inception and perpetuation to the challenges and opportunities for peace. The course emphasizes a gender-sensitive and intersectional lens, analyzing how gender interacts with other identities like ethnicity, age, and class to shape individual experiences of war and peace.

Through a blend of theory and practice, this program will equip you with the essential tools and knowledge to integrate a gender-responsive approach into your work. You'll gain a thorough understanding of the Women, Peace, and Security (WPS) agenda and its core resolutions, including UNSCR 1325. By critically analyzing real-world case studies, you'll learn to identify and address the specific vulnerabilities and contributions of diverse groups in conflict-affected contexts. The ultimate goal is to empower you to design and implement more inclusive, equitable, and effective peacebuilding programs that foster lasting peace and social cohesion.
