

Organizational Development and Change Management in Co-ops Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Cooperative Societies	Duration	10 Days
Base Fee	$3,000 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Introduction

In today's dynamic socio-economic landscape, cooperative enterprises, like all organizations, must continually evolve and adapt to remain relevant, competitive, and member-centric. Training Course on Organizational Development and Change Management in Co-ops is meticulously designed to equip cooperative leaders, managers, and change agents with the essential strategic frameworks, diagnostic tools, and human-centered methodologies to effectively initiate, manage, and sustain organizational transformation. Participants will delve into critical areas such as culture assessment, stakeholder engagement, resistance management, communication strategies, and fostering innovation, all within the unique context of cooperative values and democratic governance, ensuring that change initiatives enhance, rather than erode, the cooperative identity.

This intensive program goes beyond theoretical concepts, focusing on the practical application of OD interventions and change management models tailored specifically for the cooperative sector. We will explore cutting-edge approaches to talent development, digital integration, conflict resolution, and building a resilient organizational culture, emphasizing the importance of member participation and shared leadership throughout any change process. By mastering the intricacies of leading successful organizational development and change, participants will be empowered to drive their cooperatives towards greater agility, efficiency, responsiveness to member needs, and ultimately, a more impactful and sustainable future in Kenya and across the broader cooperative movement.
