Course Introduction

---

Building M&E Capacity within Social Protection Institutions is a fundamental and strategic imperative for ensuring that social protection programs are not only effectively implemented but also continuously monitored, evaluated, and adapted to achieve their intended impact. Strong M&E capacity enables institutions to track performance, identify bottlenecks, measure outcomes, and generate the evidence needed for informed policy decisions and accountability. However, many social protection institutions face significant challenges in developing and sustaining robust M&E functions, including limited human resources, inadequate systems, and a lack of a strong M&E culture. This course is designed to address these gaps by providing a comprehensive framework and practical tools for strengthening M&E capabilities at individual, organizational, and systemic levels. It emphasizes that investing in M&E capacity is crucial for enhancing program effectiveness, fostering transparency, and ultimately improving the lives of vulnerable populations. Training Course on Building M&E Capacity within Social Protection Institutions is meticulously designed to equip with the advanced theoretical insights and intensive practical tools necessary to excel in Building M&E Capacity within Social Protection Institutions. We will delve into the foundational concepts of M&E capacity, master methodologies for assessing existing gaps, and explore cutting-edge approaches to human resource development, system strengthening, and fostering a culture of learning. A significant focus will be placed on hands-on application, analyzing real-world challenges, and developing tailored strategies for institutionalizing robust M&E functions. By integrating industry best practices, analyzing complex case studies, and engaging in intensive practical exercises, attendees will develop the strategic acumen to confidently champion and implement M&E capacity building initiatives, fostering unparalleled accountability, responsiveness, and evidence-based decision-making in social protection.
