

Women in Leadership and Decision-Making Training Course

Professional Development Training Course Outline

Category	Gender Studies	Duration	5 Days
Base Fee	$1,500 USD	Delivery Mode	Online / On-site Hybrid

Course Introduction

Empowering women to take on leadership roles and excel in decision-making is critical for achieving inclusive and sustainable development. Women in Leadership and Decision-Making Training Course focuses on building strategic leadership skills, enhancing confidence, and promoting gender equity in governance and organizational structures. Through interactive sessions, participants will explore leadership frameworks, decision-making models, and negotiation strategies, gaining the tools to influence policy, drive innovation, and foster gender-sensitive organizational cultures.

In a rapidly evolving world, the demand for transformative leadership, emotional intelligence, and strategic decision-making is higher than ever. This course leverages practical case studies, participatory learning, and scenario-based simulations to ensure participants develop actionable skills. By addressing systemic barriers, promoting networking, and cultivating mentorship, the training equips women to navigate complex organizational environments, lead with impact, and create pathways for other women to succeed in leadership roles.
